TUESDAY MORNING NOV 24, 1863

PEACE CONVENTIONS.—The Eugene paper seems to imagine that fault is found by its "Portland cotemporaries with the meetings lately held. It is mistaken, nobody objects to as many meetings as can be convened, but we are sorry that any citizen of Oregon is willing, when attending such a convention of the faithful and unterrified, to approve of resolutions, which demonstrate, if language has any meaning, their hostility to the institutions which have made our country free and prosperous, and their readiness to resist the execution of the laws For ourselves, as we have before stated, we never supposed they intended anything: they are a race of political Pickwicks—barking dogs, that never bite—but the Review must remember that public officers like those of the Provost Marshal's Department are compelled to take notice even of words, until they discover that they are only the idle breath of foolish demagogues and their followers, who have no other way to ventilate their wrath against the Government because it is trying to subdue their treasonable brethren in actual rebellion

GENERAL MCCLELLAN'S POSITION —Hon Thomas Cunningham, of Beaver county, Penn., for many years a leading Democrat, has repudiated Woodward, the Copperhead candidate for Governor, and in a speech made lately at a Union meeting he said

"He had a conversation with Judge Woodward last Fall, in Pittsburg, in reference to the war and the condition of the country As a political friend and Judge of the Supreme Court, he wished to have the opinion of Judge Woodward, and therefore asked him for it Judge Woodward, stated that, in his judgment, our only course was to withdraw all our armies north of Mason and Dixon's line, and offer terms to the rebel States."

This Judge Woodward, who has also recently given a judicial opinion that the Conscription Act is unconstitutional, is the same worthy patriot, with whose opinions, General McClellan lately declared that he fully sympathized. If so, of course the General would withdraw all our armies and offer terms to rebels in arms. Does this explain the reason why he fought so reluctantly and never seemed to wish to hurt the traitors?

FREEDOM OF SPEECH —The General Government is more bitterly denounced by men who pretend to be Democrats, for alleged interference with free speech, than for all other causes Why this is so, we cannot understand, for judging from the abuse of the Government at public meetings held under the lead of the very men who complain, and from the insolent and atrocious slanders which fill the newspapers published by them, it must be admitted that instead of restraint, there is the most unbridled license Probably this does no harm to the cause of the country, but the charge of suppressing the freedom of speech, is supremely absurd, when the speakers and writers, who make it, themselves give the most conclusive evidence in their own speeches and writings, that it is utterly false

THEY FOLLOW THEIR LEADER —Vallandigham is now virtually the leader of the so-called Democracy of the North, and he had the frankness to say that if Vicksburg was captured, he was sure to be defeated in Ohio, or in other words that his success depended upon the defeat and ruin of his country The result has proved that he spoke the truth His followers manifest the same spirit They wilt under the tidings of victory to the National armies, while they rejoice and shout when the Stars and Stripes are smitten down by rebels Their conduct is natural and consistent They follow their leader, who is just fit to be the chief of such a band of peace traitors and cowards

RAILROAD MEETING —A large number of the citizens of Portland met at the Court House last evening to listen to the address of Marshall Turley, Esq , upon the subject of Oregon Railroads. Mr Turley entertained the audience for an hour with an address full of the logic of facts, well interlarded with eloquence and wit.

After further remarks by Col W W Chapman, Hon Wm Strong, and others, R J Ladd Esq , was called to the chair and W C Johnson, chosen Secretary and upon motion the thanks of the meeting were unanimously tendered to Mr Turley

The following was presented and adopted

Resolved That a committee of ten citizens from different parts of Portland be appointed by the chair to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the people of the city and vicinity in regard to the railroad enterprise and that they be requested to report to an adjourned meeting on the evening of Wednesday the 25th inst

The Secretary was requested to furnish copy of minutes of proceedings to the daily papers of the city

Adjourned to meet at the Court House on the 23d inst , at 7 o'clock, p m

ELIZABETH ECKERSON

Letter from Colville---the Mines &c.

COLVILLE, W T Nov 2 1863

EDITOR OREGONIAN

We have had here great reports of mines discovered by a party under Capt Mullan, on the "Ponderay"—at the old Mormon establishment. There was a party sent out from this place to ascertain the facts They did not find anything that would pay Some of Mullan's party had gone to the Flat Head country and he with the remainder, had returned to Walla Walla

That there are rich mines in the region referred to, it is firmly believed Men have been out the present season prospecting there on the same stream, but higher up in the mountains, and they found gold, but in what quantities I am unable to say as they will not inform any one I have seen some in the hands of one of the company, a Frenchman some six or eight dollars, in pieces that would weigh from five to fifty cents I understand that he and his partners have again left this valley—in the night Men are dropping off one or two at a time—no one seems to know where they go, or where they went

The "Coutenay" mines seem to attract the most attention at this time There can be no doubt that the prospects got by Dr Tobey last fall, will pay to look after A great many men will go there early in the Spring from this valley, and as we have the advantage of some two hundred miles of distance, to be traveled, we hope to be there first in the Spring

The "Coutenay" country is accessible from this point by wagons Most of that country is in British Columbia but all supplies must go through our territory We do believe it to be rich in gold, but we are not anxious for a rush to it at present The next season will fully develope the mineral character of the country

Mining business in this region experienced a falling off the season now closing Most of the white miners left in the Spring for the Boise mines, The few left were not very industrious and not very successful The Chinese continued. The exodus of the whites curtailed the business of the few merchants here very much These whites—or a few of them—not long since, undertook to make a raise out of the Chinese, by levying a tax and collecting it from them,—as they said, for the use of the Government The Chinese had recourse to law to avoid the payment and to recover what they had paid The matter was tried before the County or some other Court, and the jury, who were miners or their friends, decided that there was no cause for action!

We have cold weather here, but that is not surprising, as we are within twenty miles of 49° North latitude.

The U S. Sanitary Commission.

The following interesting letter was written to the S F. Bulletin, by a correspondent, who has been acting as an assistant to the Commission

An institution which is freely renowned in the States—first as the people's hand extended to the soldier, second, as the pride of the army and third, as the peculiar pet of munificent California and, judging by the fact that you have, during the month of September, forwarded by the Commission $21 000—to say nothing of previous hundreds of thousands, and be it loyally hoped, subsequent hundreds of thousands—its machinery operations and immeasurable results must always be interesting to the people who have startled history and the world by the grandeur of their golden generosities May God bless every individual one of them, and all the little ones who shall be graced by wearing their individual names!

It may seem an easy thing to distribute supplies to the sick and wounded of an army It may be thought that individuals or local organizations can effectively and economically transfer contributions to the needy The warm hearted people at home are apt to think but little and know less of the difficulties which inevitably meet spasmodic or temporary agents who, in patriotic ignorance attempt the task Mayhap the experience of your humble servant, on his first visit to the front, will serve to show that in no other way than by means of the complete and systematic machinery of the U S Sanitary Commission could the California contributions have been made half so effective or quarter so blessed I was offered service in the Commission which I temporarily accepted for the purpose of seeing what it did and how it did it, and for the further purpose of squarely telling Californians how their gifts went, where they went to whom they went and whether, in the sage judgment of yours modestly they ought to be kept "a-coming" And so, let me speak concerning the Commission some things from personal observation

Leaving Alexandria one bright August morning, a pleasant ride in a freight car over the Orange and Alexandria railroad conveyed us to Bealton Station, then the most advanced depot as our lines extended no further than the Rappahannock For a distance of 16 miles, through a country once smiling with quiet homes and gleesome with farms, but now barren, blackened and scarred by the inevitable result of a rebellion against Washington's flag there was scarcely a rail to be seen, much less a fence, or a cross

All the afternoon wagons kept rolling in from the woods and then rolling out beyond the woods They must have come from some place, and be going to some place—but where was it?

Upon the other hand there was Yours in perplexity, with twelve boxes and three kegs of sanitary stores, to be delivered to the Field Superintendent at his headquarters in the Second Division of the Second Corps Thirty brawny contrabands had, after a half hour's vigorous practice of the game of How not to do it succeeding in dropping the packages from the car and Yours watchfully had immediately succeeded in mounting guard on top of them But who was to do anything more with them? How was that who to do it? Which road would he take when he started to do it? And after he got to wherever he started to go how on earth was he to find the somebody he wanted to find especially as the whole city of somebodies might have trudged twenty miles away from where they were when last heard of and still more especially, as they would leave anybody behind who either knew or cared a straw where they had trudged to? Wasn't it a nice position for a philanthropic young man who had rushed frantically off with supplies for the suffering soldiers? And wasn't there a brilliant prospect of any single individual getting the supplies to the soldier? And to where was was the philanthropic young man to find something to eat, or a place to sleep Overhead was the sky beginning to glimmer with stars underneath were the [illegible] twelve boxes and three kegs all around were squads of chivalric contrabands ready in the regular chivalric way to appropriate the said boxes and kegs should they be unwatched A guard might be detailed for that purpose if the Provost Marshal happened to be in a good humor but somehow, a[illegible] always turns up that guards are fond of good things to eat and good things to drink and have a marvelous genius in the way of putting themselves outside of such good things And further while it was very philanthropic and very romantic to know that you were at the front of the Grand Army of the Potomac, yet the Johnny Rebs were also at the front—only four miles distant, and what if they should make a raid and gobble up your correspondent, whom they would of course fancy and introduce him to the luxurious apartments of Libby prison, and to a couple of other Sanitary Commission agents whom they had already introduced to those apartments How would that go? Virginia might be a very hospitable State The Chivs out in California used frequently to say that it was they glowingly described its cheery homesteads, its queenly daughters its generous sons, and Yours—credulously—used to believe it But he did just exactly see it that way now and he didn't want to see it just now though it [illegible] There those boxes sat just as calmly and impertinently as if they hadn't anything at all to do with the matter, and as if they never in all their lives had bothered anybody or could bother anybody Had they only got mad or fidgety or hungry or sleepy it would have been a grim consolation if they looked as agreeable as people try to look on [illegible] visits And had they been [illegible] their custodian would have bidden them an affectionate good night with permission to go wherever they pleased at the strong recommendation to go to [illegible] but they had not and there was a hope that they would [illegible] the Sanitary Commission which had [illegible] in that way, and, as it was his duty to deliver them and himself to the Field Superintendent—which at the appointed hour [illegible] further trouble by piling Yours [illegible] and the placed boxes into a wagon [illegible] five miles through woods [illegible] friendly San Com' tent

[illegible]

[illegible] arrived to [illegible] organization less [illegible] than that of Wells Fargo [illegible] effectively if at all, [illegible] the gifts [illegible] the [illegible] donee All that, had [illegible] divided his contributions into a thousand little driblets and entrusted each driblet to one of the thousand [illegible] volunteers [illegible] help [illegible] little fields or the [illegible] burning in hospital which are now supplied by his munificence, would have been cooled at all

Next the difficulties here Oftentimes, and generally the army is scattered over from 20 to 40 miles of territory and its hospitals are scattered to an appropriate degree It is divided into corps and corps into three divisions each division of three brigades and each brigade into many regiments In addition to the general hospitals which are permanently established at central points each of the above bodies may have its hospital [illegible] in the field [illegible] rarely [illegible] one while to the great majority [illegible] the [illegible] are treated either in their quarters or in the regimental hospitals The larger hospitals have their hospital fund by means of which they can furnish the patient with all the necessaries and some of the luxuries but the fund of the regimental hospitals is so small and the means of transportation so limited that but few of the [illegible] necessaries can be supplied It is to these patients then fresh from picket duty or the battle that people's gifts should chiefly be sent When the Twelfth Corps held the advanced left on the Rappahannock the Second division guarded a line ten miles in length, and its hospitals were widely separated while the First division joined on to its line and similarly scattered its hospitals Hence it will be seen that the getting of stores from the depot to the Corps is one of the smallest troubles and that the manner in which the Sanitary Committee operates is wise necessary effective and economical

HOW THE SANITARY COMMISSION OPERATES

It is thus Each of the Corps is permanently assigned a relief agent who is furnished by the Commission with a driver a substantial army wagon expressly made for its use four good team horses a saddle horse blankets and a mess kit The wagon is capable of carrying 2 000 lb of stores over roads in any condition and it is the agent's duty so often as issues deplete his stock to go to the Field Store house which is always to be found at the Quartermaster's depot, and draw a full and complete assortment—so that, no matter how speedily a move may be made he is able to meet the immediate necessities of his Corps On the march he keeps company with the ambulance train in which all the sick and wounded are carried, and in time of action he follows the medical wagon which furnishes the field surgeons with supplies But should that wagon not be immediately ordered up as is frequently the case in a doubtful contest, the Agent parts company, and pushes his supplies to the points where the wounded are carried during the action For example the Second Corps led the late advance up in Culpepper and Mr Murray, the agent, reports, "I have the satisfaction of knowing that my wagon was always ahead of any other teams of relief, that I disposed supplies to the wounded cavalry within an hour after wounds were received, gave out stores at Culpepper before the medical department had their wagons up, and while our own team was in motion, passed out articles to surgeons in charge of trains of wounded"

So soon as the corps encamps, the agent rides around to the different regiments, informs the surgeons as to the locality of his wagons, gives him a list of supplies learns the number of his sick and the nature of their diseases, and invites him to make requisition for such articles as are not furnished by Government, but which the patients need And the heartiness with which he is received, the avidity with which the requisitions are made, and, upon subsequent visits to the hospitals, the cheeriness with which the poor fellows greet him far more than compensates for the loneliness of many a long hunt after some regiment on outpost duty

By being constantly in the same corps, he knows what stewards are trustworthy and what ones are disposed to appropriate sanitary stores to their personal use, also, who of the surgeons are upright, and who may be friendly to "San Com" liquors Cases of misappropriation are of less frequent occurrence than may be supposed, for as a mass, the surgeons are so far as my experience goes, both skillful and honorable, and are imbued with so much professional pride that the comfort of the patients ranks before their personal comfort But in case the agent doubts any one he has only to keep a watchful eye upon the stores and when satisfied of their misappropriation to report his belief to the Inspector, who lays the matter before the proper authorities, and the result is either a quick removal or a court martial.

THE MISCHIEF OF DOING THINGS THE WRONG WAY

The reason why the stores are not placed directly in the hands of the sick, is, because the surgeon who daily treats them alone knows what they need and what will prove beneficial and because it is a matter of impossibility for any but the regular nurses to administer the articles at regular and proper intervals A tumbler of wine distributed through 24 hours may save a life, but if the half be given at once, the scale may thereby be reversed As a case in point A soldier had turned the critical point of disease and was doing well a benevolent individual distributing supplies out of a basket gave him some pickles, which he ate The surgeon discovered it, and informed the philanthropist that the charity had probably insured the death of the patient In fact it did within 48 hours In one of the hospitals at Gettysburg some five or six men were discovered drunk Inquiry was made and it was found that certain individuals who had gone to [illegible] the articles directly in the hands of the soldier himself had been giving away liquor at random with the above results So reports eminent army authorities

THE POPULARITY OF THE COMMISSION

All other organizations more or less interfere with the medical authorities The Sanitary Commission does not, but is universally popular The Medical Inspector of the Army of the Potomac writes "We could not get along without it it supplies articles that we can obtain from no other source at the time most needed" And the Medical Director says "It does not interfere with us at all it is indispensable"

A still better evidence of good feeling is the high esteem in which it is held by those best of all judges—the men in the ranks When a division of the Twelfth marched past my wagon one day, which had U S Sanitary Commission painted on each side a constant stream of such remarks as the following was poured forth "How are you, Sanitary?" "How are you Sanitary?" "Glad to see Sanitary along" "Bully for you Sanitary" "That's the Commission for me" "I say Sanitary have you any brandy?" "Yes plenty of it" "Won't you give us a drink? I'm mighty dry" "Certainly if you'll get the [illegible] or break your back" "Oh [illegible]" "Hello Sanitary won't you [illegible] a little" "No we get everything away" "Well then give me a bottle" "What would the [illegible] do?" "Your head's level I don't want to rob them" "U S San Com bully for San Com [illegible] all the [illegible]"

During over two hours of all imaginable queer, quaint and emphatic remarks not a single unkind or even indifferent expression was uttered And the wagon seemed to be considered as each individual's particular pet If at any time it gets stuck the men will put their shoulders to the wheel and help it along Should it be found it was [illegible] to be temporarily left, the quartermaster or commissary trains will haul its stores and guard them religiously And from all ranks the highest and lowest one meets with so much real assistance so much good humor and so much heartfelt kindness, as to make him wish to do a thousandfold more than it is possible to do for such noble fellows

There is a complete system of checks upon the agent He gives a receipt for all he draws and must return vouchers signed by surgeons for all issues—save in cases of special [illegible] reports the [illegible] It is generally small perhaps a few [illegible] a swallow of stimulus [illegible] opportunities for vestige and if there were the [illegible] of the agents is worth more to them than the amount which it is possible to purloin At the [illegible] is never suffered to within [illegible] from the needy HARKAWAY

THE GAME SEASON —There are few localities offering greater inducements to the genuine sportsman than the vicinage of Portland A short pull down the Willamette, in a skiff, will take the fowler to those spots where most do congregate, in lakes as well as on the river, nearly all descriptions of aquatic fowls, without that fear of man and gun which makes them difficult to approach. The graceful swan, whose delicate down adorns to such advantage the equally delicate necks and wrists of our graceful Portland girls, are there in abundance. Ducks, in all their varieties, geese, brant, curlew and snipe, all fat as butter and of excellent flavor, are brought to the city, from half a dozen to one hundred and fifty in a lot, by amateur as well as professional sportsmen Our market is thus constantly and bountifully supplied with these descriptions of fowls

SUDDEN DEATH —Under this head, we yesterday mentioned the death of a steamboat cabin waiter at Vancouver. Bishop A M A Blanchet kindly informs us in a note that the man's name was Michael Morren, a Chilian After leaving the boat, he walked up—not to the hotel, as we were misinformed—to the hospital kept by the Sisters of Charity, and hardly laid upon the bed, before he died The cause is still unknown.

GOLD RECEIPTS —The Hunt last night came in with between $50,000 and $60,000 to Wells, Fargo & Co , beside the amounts in hands of passengers, of whom there were one hundred and thirty.

U S SOLDIERS —A detachment of fourteen cavalry, with their accoutrements and horses, arrived from Vancouver on the Hunt last evening

TRAITORS IN VICTORIA —The plots which have of late developed so unfortunately for the "peace democrats" of Ohio, and their sympathizing partisan friends over the Canadian border, should be sufficient to awaken the loyal citizens of Oregon and Washington to a sense of their insecurity, in the event of any similar conspiracies having been formed by the copperheads at home and their allies in Victoria It is well known that the great majority of the men born within the United States who have made their homes in British Columbia since the war commenced, are base rebels at heart, and would scarcely hesitate to concoct any scheme, or consummate any deed, by which to wreak their fiendish hate upon the loyal people of the North The British Columbia mines are a deserted failure. The miners who have loudly cursed the "Lincoln hordes" all summer are now gathering in Victoria, not one in a hundred with means enough to defray their expenses thence, disheartened, disgusted and desperate, and ready to venture upon any expedition which promises, howsoever remotely, to better their situations, and perhaps aggrandize and gratify them We do not assume, from what we have heard, that any operations from Victoria simultaneously with the now frustrated schemes in Canada and Ohio were a part of the general conspiracy, nor that the recent appearance at Victoria of a steel clipper schooner, which "can be purchased," was anything more or less than legitimate

A WISE MEASURE FOR PUBLIC SAFETY —We have been informed that, upon information received from reliable sources in Victoria, Gen Alvord has sent to San Francisco for a man-of-war to be stationed on the waters of Puget Sound. This is indeed a wise measure devised none too early for the protection of the millions of dollars invested in the mills and shipping of that now defenceless region, and we sincerely trust that a vessel adequate in points of speed and armament to any emergency, may be despatched to those waters.

HEAVY STORM OF WIND —A telegram from Yreka, Nov. 18th, says a heavy wind-storm passed over Trinity Valley, Scott's Mountain and the upper portion of Scott's Valley last Saturday, which did much damage to the telegraph line in those sections. Altogether, more than a mile of the line and poles were blown down. In many places, huge trees were felled across it Every effort is being made to get the line repaired, and it will probably be working through to morrow

PROGRESS OF THE TELEGRAPH —By telegram from Yreka, Nov 18th, we receive the following The Oregon line is now completed from this place to the upper portion of Rogue River Valley. The work is going on at the rate of about five miles per day

SAN FRANCISCO TAX — The collections of the Federal Tax Collector for the San Francisco District, for thirteen months, ending November 1st, amount to $835,907 07, of which amount $340 239 14 was from incomes The total income list submitted by the Assessor was $4,060,000

THE INDIANA ELECTION —The Indianapolis Journal says of the late election in that State

In Indiana the rebels are simply beaten to death There is not enough left of them to crow over So utter and humiliating a defeat has rarely befallen a party at any election and never at an election containing so few elements of popular interest In this county the Union majority will be doubled In several others it will be largely increased In none will it be diminished, as far as we now have news

TUESDAY MORNING NOV 24, 1863

Peace Conventions—The Eugene paper seems to imagine that fault is found by its "Portland cotemporaries" with the meetings lately held It is mistaken, nobody objects to as many meetings as can be convened, but we are sorry that any citizen of Oregon is willing, when attending such a convention of the faithful and unterrified, to approve of resolutions, which demonstrate, if language has any meaning, their hostility to the institutions which have made our country free and prosperous, and their readiness to resist the execution of the laws For ourselves, as we have before stated, we never supposed they intended anything they are a race of political Pickwicks—barking dogs, that never bite—but the Review must remember that public officers like those of the Provost Marshal's Department are compelled to take notice even of words, until they discover that they are only the idle breath of foolish demagogues and their followers, who have no other way to vent their wrath against the Government because it is trying to subdue their treasonable brethren in actual rebellion

General McClellan's Position—Hon Thomas Cunningham, of Beaver county, Penn, for many years a leading Democrat, has repudiated Woodward, the Copperhead candidate for Governor, and in a speech made lately at a Union meeting he said

"He had a conversation with Judge Woodward last Fall in Pittsburg in reference to the war and the condition of the country As a political friend and Judge of the Supreme Court, he wished to have the opinion of Judge Woodward, and therefore asked him for it Judge Woodward, stated that, in his judgment, our only course was to withdraw all our armies north of Mason and Dixon's line, and offer terms to the rebel States."

This Judge Woodward, who has also recently given a judicial opinion that the Conscription Act is unconstitutional, is the same worthy patriot, with whose opinions, General McClellan lately declared that he fully sympathized. If so, of course the General would withdraw all our armies and offer terms to rebels in arms. Does this explain the reason why he fought so reluctantly and never seemed to wish to hurt the traitors?

Freedom of Speech—The General Government is more bitterly denounced by men who pretend to be Democrats, for alleged interference with free speech, than for all other causes Why this is so, we cannot understand, for judging from the abuse of the Government at public meetings held under the lead of the very men who complain, and from the insolent and atrocious slanders which fill the newspapers published by them it must be admitted that instead of restraint, there is the most unbridled license Probably this does no harm to the cause of the country, but the charge of suppressing the freedom of speech, is supremely absurd, when the speakers and writers, who make it, themselves give the most conclusive evidence in their own speeches and writings, that it is utterly false

They Follow their Leader—Vallandigham is now virtually the leader of the so-called Democracy of the North, and he had the frankness to say that if Vicksburg was captured, he was sure to be defeated in Ohio, or, in other words that his success depended upon the defeat and ruin of his country The result has proved that he spoke the truth His followers manifest the same spirit They wilt under the tidings of victory to the National armies, while they rejoice and shout when the Stars and Stripes are smitten down by rebels Their conduct is natural and consistent They follow their leader, who is just fit to be the chief of such a band of peace traitors and cowards

Railroad Meeting—A large number of the citizens of Portland met at the Court House last evening to listen to the address of Marshall Turley, Esq, upon the subject of Oregon Railroads. Mr. Turley entertained the audience for an hour with an address full of the logic of facts, well interlarded with eloquence and wit

After further remarks by Col W W Chapman, Hon Wm Strong, and others, R J Ladd, Esq, was called to the chair and W C Johnson, chosen Secretary and upon motion the thanks of the meeting were unanimously tendered to Mr Turley

Resolved That a committee of ten citizens from different parts of Portland be appointed by the chair to [illegible] resolutions expressive of the sense of the people of the city and vicinity in regard to the railroad enterprise and that they be requested to report to an adjourned meeting on the evening of Wednesday the 25th inst

The Secretary was requested to furnish copy of minutes of proceedings to the daily papers of the city

Adjourned to meet at the Court House on the 23d inst, at 7 o'clock, P M

Letter from Colville—the Mines &c

Colville W T Nov 2 1863

Editor Oregonian

We have had here great reports of mines discovered by a party under Capt Mullan on the "Ponderay"—at the old Mormon establishment There was a party sent out from this place to ascertain the facts They did not find anything that would pay Some of Mullan's party had gone to the Flat Head country and he with the remainder had returned to Walla Walla

That there are rich mines in the region referred to it is firmly believed Men have been out the present season prospecting there on the same stream but higher up in the mountains, and they found gold but in what quantities I am unable to say as they will not inform any one I have seen some in the hands of one of the company a Frenchman some six or eight dollars in pieces that would weigh from five to fifty cents I understand that he and his partners have again left this valley—in the night Men are dropping off one or two at a time—no one seems to know where they go, or where they went

The Cootenay mines seem to attract the most attention at this time There can be no doubt that the prospects got by Dr Tober last fall, will pay to look after A great many men will go there early in the Spring from this valley and as we have the advantage of some two hundred miles of distance to be traveled, we hope to be there first in the Spring

The Cootenay country is accessible from this point by wagons Most of that country is in British Columbia but all supplies must go through our territory We do believe it to be rich in gold, but we are not anxious for a rush to it at present The next season will fully develope the mineral character of the country

Mining business in this region experienced a falling off the season now closing Most of the white miners left in the Spring for the Boise mines The few left were not very industrious and not very successful The Chinese continued The exodus of the whites curtailed the business of the few merchants here very much These whites—or a few of them—not long since, undertook to make a raise out of the Chinese by levying a tax and collecting it from them,—as they said, for the use of the Government. The Chinese had recourse to law to avoid the payment and to recover what they had paid The matter was tried before the County or some other Court and the jury, who were miners or their friends, decided that there was no cause for action!

We have cold weather here, but that is not surprising, as we are within twenty miles of 49° North latitude

The U S Sanitary Commission.

The following interesting letter was written to the S F Bulletin, by a correspondent, who has been acting as an assistant to the Commission

An institution which is trebly renowned in the States—first as the people's hand extended to the soldier second, as the pride of the army and third, as the peculiar pet of munificent California and judging by the fact that you have, during the month of September forwarded by the Commission $21 000—to say nothing of previous hundreds of thousands, and be it loyally hoped, subsequent hundreds of thousands—its machinery operations and immeasurable results must always be interesting to the people who have startled history and the world by the grandeur of their golden generosities May God bless every individual one of them and all the little ones who shall be graced by wearing their individual names!

It may seem an easy thing to distribute supplies to the sick and wounded of an army It may be thought that individuals or local organizations can effectively and economically transfer contributions to the needy The warm hearted people at home are apt to think but little and know less of the difficulties which inevitably meet spasmodic or temporary agents who in patriotic ignorance attempt the task Mayhap the experience of your humble servant on his first visit to the front, will serve to show that in no other way than by means of the complete and systematic machinery of the U S Sanitary Commission could the California contributions have been made half so effective or quarter so [illegible] I was offered service in the Commission which I temporarily accepted for the purpose of seeing what it did and how it did it, and for the further purpose of squarely telling Californians how their gifts went where they went to whom they went and whether, in the sage judgment of your [illegible] they ought to be kept "flowing" And so, let me speak concerning the Commission some things from personal observation

Leaving Alexandria one bright August morning a pleasant ride in a freight car over the Orange and Alexandria railroad conveyed us to Bealton Station then the most advanced depot as our lines extended no further than the Rappahannock For a distance of 16 miles, through a country once smiling with quiet homes and gleesome with farms but now barren, blackened and scarred by the inevitable result of a rebellion against Washington's flag there was scarcely a rail to be seen much less a fence, or a cross

All the afternoon wagons kept rolling in from the woods and then rolling out beyond the woods They must have come from some place, and be going to some place—but where was it?

Upon the other hand there was Yours in perplexity with twelve boxes and three kegs of sanitary stores, to be delivered to the Field Superintendent at his headquarters in the Second Division of the Second Corps Thirty brawny contrabands had after a half hour's vigorous practice of the game of How not to do it succeeded in dropping the packages from the car and Yours watchfully had immediately succeeded in mounting guard on top of them But who was to do anything more with them? How was that "who" to do it? Which road would he take when he started to do it? And after he got to wherever he started to go how on earth was he to find the somebody he wanted to find especially as the whole city of somebodies might have trudged twenty miles away from where they were when last heard of and still more especially, as they would leave anybody behind who either knew or cared a straw where they had trudged to? Was it a nice position for a philanthropic young man who had rushed frantically off with supplies for the suffering soldiers? And was it there a brilliant prospect of any single individual getting the supplies to the soldier And too where was the philanthropic young man to find something to eat, or a place to sleep? Overhead were the sky beginning to glimmer with stars underneath were the blessed twelve boxes and three kegs all around were squads of chivalric contrabands ready in the regular chivalric way to appropriate the said boxes and kegs should they be unwatched A guard might be detailed for that purpose if the Provost Marshal happened to be in a good humor but somehow [illegible] always turns up that good [illegible] of good things to eat and good things to drink and have a marvellous gymnastic way of putting the matter outside of [illegible] good things And further while it was very philanthropic and very romantic to know that you were at the front of the Grand Army of the Potomac yet the Johnny Rebs were also at the front—only four miles distant and what if they should make a raid and gobble up your correspondent whom they would of course fancy and introduce him to the luxurious apartments of Libby prison and to a couple of other Sanitary Commission agents whom they had already introduced to these apartments How would that go? Virginia might be a very hospitable State The Chivs out in California used frequently to say that it was they glowingly described its hearty homesteads its queenly daughters its generous [illegible] and Yours—credulously—used to believe it But so did it just exactly strike that way now in fact he did not want to see it just now as it might hurt There the boxes sat just as calmly and imperturbably as if they hadn't anything to do with the matter and as if they never in all their lives had bothered anybody or could bother anybody But being that they [illegible] kept it would have been a grim consolation if they looked as agreeable as people try to look in cartes de visite And had they been his own their custodian would have bidden them an affectionate [illegible] with permission to go wherever they [illegible] [illegible] hope that they [illegible] Sanitary Commission [illegible] in that way, and, [illegible] to deliver them and himself [illegible] who at the [illegible] further [illegible] the placid boxes into a wagon [illegible] five miles through woods [illegible] a friendly San Com [illegible]

WHAT OTHER [illegible] NEVER FIND THE SUPPLYING [illegible]

[illegible] arrived to, [illegible] organization less [illegible] Wells Fargo & Co [illegible] at all, convey the gifts [illegible] of the [illegible] And that, [illegible] contributions into a thousand little dribblets and entrusted [illegible] local or volunteer [illegible] which [illegible] would have been cooled at all

Nearly the difficulties [illegible] here Oftentimes, indeed, generally the army is scattered over from 20 to 30 miles of territory and its hospitals are scattered [illegible] In addition to the general hospital which are [illegible] many regiment [illegible] the sick are treated [illegible] hospitals [illegible] it is to their patients [illegible] that people's gifts should chiefly be sent When the Twelfth Corps held the advance left on the Rappahannock the Second division guarded a line ten miles in length and its hospitals were widely separated while the First division joined on to its line and similarly scattered its hospitals Hence it will be seen that the getting of stores from the depot to the Corps is one of the smallest trouble and that the manner in which the Sanitary Committee operates is wise, necessary, effective and economical

[illegible] THE SANITARY COMMISSION [illegible]

It is thus Each field Corps is permanently assigned a relief agent who is furnished by the Commission with a driver a substantial army wagon expressly made for its use four good team horses a saddle horse blankets and a mess kit The wagon is capable of carrying 2 000 lb of stores over roads in any condition and it is the agent's duty so often as issues deplete his stock, to go to the Field Store house which is always to be found at the Quartermaster's depot, and draw a full and complete assortment—so that no matter how [illegible] is a more may be made he is able to meet the immediate necessities of his Corps On the march he keeps company with the ambulance train in which all the sick and wounded are carried, and in time of action he follows the medical wagon which furnishes the field surgeons with supplies But should that wagon not be immediately ordered up as is frequently the case in a doubtful contest, the Agent parts company, and pushes his supplies to the points where the wounded are carried during the action For example, the Second Corps led the late advance upon Culpepper and Mr Murray, the agent reports, "I have the satisfaction of knowing that my wagon was always ahead of any other teams of relief, that I disposed supplies to the wounded cavalry within an hour after wounds were received, gave out stores at Culpepper before the medical department had their wagons up, and while our own team was in motion, passed out articles to surgeons in charge of trains of wounded"

So soon as the corps encamps, the agent rides around to the different regiments informs the surgeons as to the locality of his wagons gives him a list of supplies learns the number of his sick and the nature of their diseases and invites him to make requisition for such articles as are not furnished by Government, but which the patients need And the heartiness with which he is received, the avidity with which the requisitions are made, and, upon subsequent visits to the hospitals, the cheeriness with which the poor fellows greet him far more than compensates for the loneliness of many a long hunt after some regiment on outpost duty

By being constantly in the same corps, he knows what stewards are trustworthy and what ones are disposed to appropriate sanitary stores to their personal use also, who of the surgeons are upright and who may be friendly to "San Com" liquors Cases of misappropriation are of less frequent occurrence than may be supposed for as a mass, the surgeons are so far as my experience goes both skillful and honorable, and are imbued with so much [illegible] pride that the comfort of the patients ranks [illegible] their personal comfort But [illegible] the agent [illegible] any [illegible] has only to keep a watchful eye upon the stores and when satisfied of their misappropriation to report his belief to the Inspector who lays the matter before the proper authorities and the result is either a quick removal or a court martial

THE SECURITY OF [illegible] THINGS [illegible] WRONG WAY

The reason why the stores are not placed directly in the hands of the sick are because the surgeon who daily treats them alone knows what they need and what will prove beneficial and because it is a matter of impossibility for any but the regular nurses to administer the articles at regular and proper intervals A tumbler of wine distributed through 24 hours may save a life but if the half be given at once the scale may thereby be reversed As in case in point A soldier had turned the critical point of disease and was doing well and never an individual distributing supplies out of a basket gave him some pickles which he ate The surgeon discovered it, and informed the philanthropist that the charity had probably insured the death of the patient In fact it did within 48 hours In one of the hospitals at Gettysburg some five or six men were discovered drunk Inquiry was made and it was found that certain individuals who had come to place the articles directly in the hands of the soldier himself had been giving away liquor at random with the above results So reports eminent [illegible] authority

THE POPULARITY OF THE COMMISSION

All other organizations more or less interfere with the medical authorities The Sanitary Commission [illegible] it, but is universally popular The Medical Inspector of the Army of the Potomac writes We could not get along without it it supplies articles that we can obtain from no other source at the time most needed And the Medical Director [illegible] [illegible] interfere with us and [illegible] invaluable

A still better evidence of good feeling is the high esteem in which it is held by those best of all judges—the men in the ranks When a division of the Twelfth marched past my wagon one day which had, U S Sanitary Commission painted on each side, a constant stream of such remarks as the following was poured forth How are you Sanitary? How are you Sanitary [illegible] glad to see Sanitary along Bully for you Sanitary That's the Commission for me I say Sanitary have you any brandy? Yes plenty [illegible] Won't you give me a drink? I'm mighty dry Certainly if you'll get the typhoid fever or break your leg [illegible] [illegible] Sanitary won't you give me a [illegible] No we give everything away Well can give me a little What will [illegible] Your [illegible] level [illegible] them [illegible] San Com bully for San Com [illegible]

During [illegible] hour [illegible] of many a [illegible] pungent and emphatic remarks not a single unkind or even indifferent expression was uttered And the wagon [illegible] particular pet If at any time it [illegible] the men will put their shoulders to the wheel and help it along Should it break down [illegible] to better portly left the quartermasters or commissary trains will haul its stores and guard them gratuitously And from all [illegible] the highest and lowest one meets with so much hearty assistance so much good humor and so much heartfelt kindness as to make him wish to do a thousand-fold more than it is possible to do for such noble fellows

There is a complete system of checks upon the agent He gives receipts on all he draws and must return vouchers signed by [illegible] for all he issues—save in cases of [illegible] but which are [illegible] issue made [illegible] generally [illegible] perhaps a few crackers or a swallow of stimulant [illegible] If the agents [illegible] [illegible] Harvey

The Game Season—There are few localities offering greater inducements to the genuine sportsman than the vicinage of Portland A short pull down the Willamette, in a skiff, will take the fowler to those spots where most do congregate, in lakes as well as on the river, nearly all descriptions of aquatic fowls, with just that fear of man and gun which makes them difficult to approach The graceful swan, whose delicate down adorns to such advantage the equally delicate necks and wrists of our graceful Portland girls, are there in abundance Ducks, in all their varieties, geese brant, curlew and snipe, all fat as butter and of excellent flavor, are brought to the city, from half a dozen to one hundred and fifty in a lot, by amateur as well as professional sportsmen Our market is thus constantly and bountifully supplied with these descriptions of fowls

Sudden Death—Under this head, we yesterday mentioned the death of a steamboat cabin waiter at Vancouver Bishop A M A Blanchet kindly informs us in a note that the man's name was Michael Morren, a Chilian After leaving the boat, he walked up—not to a hotel, as we were misinformed—to the hospital kept by the Sisters of Charity, and hardly laid upon the bed, before he died The cause is still unknown

Gold Receipts—The Hunt last night came down with between $50 000 and $60,000 to Wells, Fargo & Co, beside the amounts in hands of passengers, of whom there were one hundred and thirty

U S. Soldiers—A detachment of fourteen cavalry, with their accoutrements and horses, arrived from Vancouver on the Hunt last evening

Traitors in Victoria—The plots which have of late developed so unfortunately for the "peace democrats" of Ohio, and their sympathizing partisan friends over the Canadian border, should be sufficient to awaken the loyal citizens of Oregon and Washington to a [illegible] of their insecurity, in the event of any similar conspiracies having been formed by the copperheads at home and their allies in Victoria It is well known that the great majority of the men born within the United States who have made their homes in British Columbia since the war commenced, are base rebels at heart, and would scarcely hesitate to concoct any scheme, or consummate any deed, by which to wreak their fiendish hate upon the loyal people of the North The British Columbia mines are a deserted failure, the miners who have loudly cursed the "Lincoln hordes" all summer are now gathering in Victoria, not one in a hundred with means enough to defray their expenses thence, disheartened, disgusted and desperate, and ready to venture upon any expedition which promises, howsoever remotely, to better their situations, and perhaps aggrandize and gratify them We do not assume, from what we have heard, that any operations from Victoria simultaneously with the now frustrated schemes in Canada and Ohio were a part of the general conspiracy, nor that the recent appearance at Victoria of a steel clipper schooner, which "can be purchased," was anything more or less than legitimate

A Wise Measure for Public Safety—We have been informed that, upon information received from reliable sources in Victoria, Gen Alvord has sent to San Francisco for a man of war to be stationed on the waters of Puget Sound. This is indeed a wise measure devised none too early for the protection of the millions of dollars invested in the mills and shipping of that now defenceless region, and we sincerely trust that a vessel adequate in points of speed and armament to any emergency, may be despatched to those waters

Heavy Storm of Wind—A telegram from Yreka, Nov 18th, says a heavy wind storm passed over Trinity Valley, Scott's Mountain and the upper portion of Scott's Valley last Saturday, which did much damage to the telegraph line in those sections Altogether, more than a mile of the line and poles were blown down In many places, huge trees were felled across it Every effort is being made to get the line repaired, and it will probably be working through to morrow

Progress of the Telegraph—By telegram from Yreka, Nov 18th, we receive the following The Oregon line is now completed from this place to the upper portion of Rogue River Valley The work is going on at the rate of about five miles per day

San Francisco Tax—The collections of the Federal Tax Collector for the San Francisco District for thirteen months ending November 1st amount to $855 907 03, of which amount $340 239 14 was from incomes The total income list submitted by the Assessor was $4,060,000

The Indiana Election—The Indianapolis Journal says of the late election in that State

In Indiana the rebels are simply beaten to death There is not enough left of them to crow over So utter and humiliating a defeat has rarely befallen a party at any election and never at an election containing so few elements of popular interest In this county the Union majority will be doubled In several others it will be largely increased In none will it be diminished as far as we now have news

Where are the Copperheads?

Go look upon the battle field,
Where the shot and shell fly fast—
Where Freedom's stirring battle-cry
Is heard upon the blast
Go where the bright sabres flash
And fell the traitor crests
Where Southern bayonets are dim
With blood from Northern breasts
Go search amid the loyal ranks—
Among the glorious dead—
Among them all you will not find
A single Copperhead

Go search the gunboat's bloody deck
When the dread conflict's done
The traitor's banner in the dust,
And silenced every gun
Where'er the bastion ramparts floats
Our flag yet oh what pain,
'Neath that our flag since morning light
How many have been slain!
Among the heroes of the fight,
The living and the dead—
Go search among them—there is not
A single Copperhead

Go search the crowded hospital,
Where ghastly wounds are seen,
Which tell through what a struggle fierce
Those noble men have been
But look upon their faces lo!
The smile through all their pain
The scars thus bear were nobly won—
Their honor has no stain.
Soft hands are ministring—kind words
Are heard around each bed,
Some soothe, some suffer, all are true—
There is no Copperhead

Go where the look can scarce conceal
The treason of the heart,
And where the tongue would willingly
Defend the traitor's part;
Where Seymour, Wood and Voorhees are Deemed patriotic men,
Go where they wish Vallandigham
Were safely back again,
Go where desertion is no crime—
Where loyalty is dead—
Where sad disaster gives no pain
There is the Copperhead

Go where foul scorn is heaped upon
Our noble boys who go
To stand a wall of fire between
Us and our traitor foe,
Go where bold Grant's revilers are—
Where Burnside is defamed,
Where Banks and Butler—noble names!
In scorn alone are named,
Go where true patriotic pride
Honor and Truth are dead—
Where our success brings but despair,
There is the Copperhead

—Harper's Weekly

British Opinion of President Lincoln. The London Star thus handsomely compliments President Lincoln.

His first official utterance was stamped with integrity, but did not indicate a full perception of the mighty change which he in fact represented He was ready to negotiate with the seceders, though not to compromise with them. He refused at the outset, with manly decision and emphasis, to surrender the object of his election—namely, the limitation of slavery But he was more than willing to discuss with them an amendment of the constitution, pointing, of course, to compensated emancipation The development of the idea is the glory of his Presidential rule With the dawn of every sun he seems to have seen more clearly the relation of negro freedom to the future of the Union He has used the victories of his fleets and armies—and their failures, too—as reasons and instruments for the advancement of his great design. Faithful to his duties as President — faithful, also, to his functions as chieftain of the great Republican party—he has been no less loyal to his personal convictions. On the morrow of his election he was described, by one who rejoiced in that event, as "not an abolitionist, scarcely an anti slavery man." If so, as marvellous as happy has been the expansion of his heart and purpose. And there is no ground for supposing that he has moved faster than the people he rules and represents They have applauded his boldest declarations, and sustained his most resolute action. They have imposed a virtual unanimity upon all sections and all parties They have compelled Seward to work in the same groove with Chase, and Governor Seymour to co operate with Mayor Opdyke. A Democratic President could scarcely undo what a Republican has done. The Abolitionists of New England find allies in Maryland and Missouri, in North Carolina and Tennessee. Men who went out as soldiers or sailors without a thought of the negro that was not contemptuous, have come to be the invincible champions of his cause. Newspapers which still delight in reviling "nigger worshippers" are afraid to obstruct emancipation Their ideas and arms march on side by side The thought of right animates the sword of victory. Mr Seward's circular fails to bring out the moral phases of the revolution whose military aspects he so graphically paints. But the eye of the world's mind—the eye especially of free and religious England—cannot but dwell on them with devout gratitude and hope

Gen. McClellan on Arbitrary Arrests. On the 12th of September, 1861, General McClellan was the first General of the armies of the Republic. He wrote from Washington to General Banks, and marked the communication "confidential," saying.

After full consultation with the President, Secretary of State, War, etc, it has been decided to effect the operation proposed for the 17th. Arrangements have been made to have a Government steamer at Annapolis to receive the prisoners and carry them to their destination.

Some four or five of the chief men in the affair are to be arrested to day When they meet on the 17th you will please have everything prepared to arrest the whole party, and be sure that none escape.

It is understood that you arranged with Gen Dix and Gov. Seward the modus operandi. It has been intimated to me that the meeting might take place on the 14th, please be prepared. I would be glad to have you advise me frequently of your arrangements in regard to this very important matter.

If it is successfully carried out it will go far toward breaking the backbone of the rebellion. It would probably be well to have a special train quietly prepared to take prisoners to Annapolis

I leave this exceedingly important affair to your tact and discretion—and have but one thing to impress upon you—the absolute necessity of secrecy and success

Enrolling a Jackass —The enrolling officer of Salisbury District, Maryland, was very active and thorough in the performance of his duty. One day he went to the house of a countryman and finding none of the male members of the family at home, made inquiry of an old lady of the number and ages of the males of the family. After naming several the old lady stopped

"Is there no one else?" asked the officer

"No," replied she, "none except Billy Bray"

"Billy Bray! where is he?"

"He was in the barn a moment ago," said the old lady

Out went the officer, but could not see the man Coming back, the worthy officer questioned the old lady as to the age of Billy, and went away, after enrolling his name among those to be drafted Time of the drafting came, and one of those on whom the lot fell was Billy Bray No one knew him Where did he live? The officer who enrolled him was called on to produce him and lo, behold Billy Bray was a jackass! and stands now on the list of drafted men, as forming the quota of Maryland.

A little girl about four years old, and a little boy about six, had been cautioned in their strife after hen's eggs not to take the nest egg, but one morning the little girl reached the nest first, seized on an egg and started for the house Her disappointed brother followed, crying "Oh, mother! Susy has been and got the egg the old hen measures by.

Married the Wrong Woman —A short time ago a candidate for matrimony arrived in town, and straightway repaired to the office of our obliging County Clerk, for the purpose of obtaining a marriage certificate The Clerk misunderstood the name of the fair one who had been making inroads on the affection of the applicant, and consequently inserted the wrong name of the female party who was to be tied by the silken cords The intended groom was so delighted with the prospect before him that he did not stop to read the document, after it was placed in his hands, but looking over the two dollars he thrust the legal privilege in his pocket Gaining an audience with the object of his heart, the two repaired to the house of a clergyman, where the document was presented, which in the eyes of the minister appearing perfectly satisfactory the two were united in the holy bands of wedlock The next morning upon seating themselves at the breakfast table of one of our hotels the groom commenced reading a record of his marriage in the morning papers, and found the printers had him married to another woman Thrusting his hand in his pocket, he pulled out the marriage license when lo and behold to his utter astonishment he discovered that the Clerk had committed the grave error of inserting the wrong name of the intended bride Turning to the object of his affections, and with an excited yet tremulous voice, he exclaimed "Maria, a mistake has been made, and I am married to the wrong woman You are not my lawful wife!" Maria gave a glance at the legal document, and with a half drawn sigh, answered "It's no use fretting Jeremiah—it's too late now" —Marysville Express.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY.

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair

Hoofland's German Bitters

Are not a new and untried article but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
and CITIZENS

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
if so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J Newton Brown D. D. Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr C M Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker Esq for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them
Philadelphia June 23 1861 J NEWTON BROWN.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters"

Philadelphia, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs Jones & Evans —Well gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life There is no mistake in this It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr Frederick Steinbron of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better Though I have taken but two bottles I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months: for, gentlemen I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade Mr. Malone, restored to life
